We have a strong industrially based economy with abundant service and commercial businesses. Our local Main Street Organization (National Organization) has worked very hard to keep our downtown vibrant and thriving. Our many Civic Organizations contribute the seasoning for the successful blend of business and industry in the City of Lawrenceburg.

Our square is alive and well with shopping, banking, antique shops, tourist attractions (David Crockett Statue & Mexican War Monument) with an occasional street fair and fun for all. Lawrenceburg is the birthplace of Southern Gospel Music and we have recently opened the Vaughan Gospel Music Museum on the square. There are other tourist attractions within walking distance of the square, one being the Old Jail Museum which is on the National Register of Historical Buildings. Lawrenceburg also sports a State Park within our city limits. The David Crockett State Park offers camping, swimming, fishing, picnicking, hiking, and biking with a fine restaurant that often hosts dinner theaters.

Our Art Deco designed Crockett Theater plays host to many local and national talents. It has hosted many cultural events, with the performers acclaiming their delight after performing in this remarkable acoustically designed theater.

Lawrenceburg is rich in history and ready for the future through technology with high tech industries and education including a local site extension of Columbia State Community College. Lawrenceburg offers the best in education, medical facilities, housing and entertainment. Our community offers small town living with big city goals and opportunities. A good place to call home.

Stop in and visit for a while, you may want to stay a lifetime.
